Chester A. Dooly

vs. } In Chancery -

In Chancery, Viney Dooly.

This cause came on this day to be heard on the bill of complainant, the deposition of witnesses and was argued by counsel, on consideration of which, it appearing that the defendant had been duly summoned in this case and failing to appear, plead, answer and demur the bill is taken for confessed. And it appearing to the Court that the allegations of the said bill have been proved, it is therefore adjudged, ordered and decreed that the bonds of matrimony heretofore contracted and now existing between the plaintiff and the defendant, be dissolved and the plaintiff be forever divorced from the said defendant, avinculo matrimonii.

And nothing further remaining to be done it is ordered that the plaintiff pay the costs of this suit and the case id stricken from the docket.
